

Can I add to this site?

Last Updated Friday, 03 June 2011

You can add items to this site by sending an email to the administrator. Click the "Contact Us" button in the menu at the left.

Directors can opt to become an administrator and add or modify events on their own.

Once you register, you can post in the forum.

Please keep discussions and posts to motorcycle related topics. As, this is a motorcycle club website, profane/innapropriate/non-motorcycle related events should not be posted here and will be deleted. To make effective use of the forum, log in so you can post and also see which sections have new messages. The word new will be highlighted in red if there are messages that you have not read.
