

LES BLOW TRIAL RESULTS

While the eastern provinces were digging out of snow, the Victoria Motorcycle Club hosted the annual Les Blow Trial at the Club's property on Happy Valley Road. Forty-four riders signed up in unseasonably mild weather including two riders who made the trek from Squamish to test their skills on our slimy hills. The largest class of the day was intermediate with 13 entries. A few of these riders rode junior last year but have now moved up to a more difficult class.

The loop trail was quite challenging giving the riders a nice tour of our VMC property. The junior riders only had to complete two loops with a third one being optional. Only the scores from their best two loops counted at the end of the day. Of special note was the effort put in by two 10 year olds, Nik Ferguson and Ty Piotrofski. These two rode together on their 80 cc bikes, found things extremely difficult on the first loop, but rather than giving up they braved a 2nd loop.

Top three riders of the day in the Expert class were: Thomas Cordner, Andrew Watson and Matt Fracy.

Thanks to the committee who put this event on. Sections were made by: Dave Fair, Sean Millard and Hugh Williams. Signup and score keeping were done by: Susan Fair and Rich Cauthers. Mr. Tube Steak made sure we all had something warm for lunch.
