

VICTORIA MOTORCYCLE CLUB JOE BROWN MAJOR TRIAL RESULTS APRIL 12, 2015

A contingency of thirty-four riders entered the Victoria Motorcycle Club's annual Joe Brown Major Trial on Sunday, April 12th. Billed as the first of three CMA British Columbia Provincial Championship events, it was held at the ISTC property near Shawnigan Lake. The other CMA events are in Squamish on June 14th and Ioco on October 18th.

The committee of Steve Fracy and Riley Ferguson worked hard to create two separate loops and twenty sections that were both challenging and fun. Congratulations to Melissa Andrist from the mainland who adjusted very well to the slippery conditions to take the win in the Intermediate class in her first visit to the ISTC property. Will Duggan won the Expert class with a strong performance ahead of Thomas Cordner and Andrew Watson.

Thanks to Micaela and Lorainne Fracy for handling the sign up, score keeping and concession.
