At the Les Blow Trial in February, the Beginner sections were “snowed” out as the small wheel bikes were unable to push through. Wanting to keep the enthusiasm up with these young riders, the parents held the Beginner part of the Les Blow Trial in November. Five young beginner riders braved some “nasty, wet” conditions (but no snow) at the Clubs’ property on Happy Valley Road a day after Armistice Day. Good times were had by all ! A big thank-you to Andrew Twamley and Chris Faa.
