REG SHANKS TRIAL - March 5, 2017

Originally known as the Novice Trial, this event was renamed in 1979 in honour of Reg with more classes and a new trophy. He was the last charter member of the VMC until his death in 1998 at the age of 93. This trial is the second of five leading to the VMC's trials championship. Cool, unsettled weather was in store for 40 competitors (included six Beginners with small wheels riding separate sections) that entered to ride three loops around the Club's property with 10 sections in each loop and with sections varied for the different classes. Scattered showers were evident throughout the day making for some slippery and demanding riding. Most competitors scrambled at some point during the day just to get through the exit gates of the challenging but safe sections. The organizing committee consisted of Andrew Watson, Art Watson, Jeremy McChesney, Steve Mawer, Hugh Williams, Kevin Ash, Sean Millard, Dave Fair, Dan Malone, Sol Hutson, Brent Sterzenbach, Don Venn. A new member, Ray Sutherland, a prospective member Mathew Wetyk and Lily Hutson handled sign up and score keeping. Vinny's Gourmet Dogs handled the lunch. Thanks to all.
